

Workshop

DATABASE HISTORIES

Histories of Databasing and Databasing of History

23. June 2023
University of Basel
Kollegienhaus - Hörsaal 119

9.15		Welcome Address
9.30-10.15	Moritz Feichtinger	Data without Base? The Remains of a Historic System
		Coffee
11.00-11.45	Markus Schmalzl, Michael Puchta	Archival Preservation of Digital Databases
		Lunch
13.00-13.45	Hannah Wiemer	Interlibrary Loan and Shared Catalogs after 1945: How Paper Databases Helped Create Book Networks in Germany
14.00-14.45	Anna Siebold	Databased History
		Coffee
15.30-16.15	Moritz Mähr	The Reconstruction of the Central Aliens Register: Early Database Systems in the Swiss Federal Administration as a Subject of Historical Research
16.30-17.15	Francis Hunger	Databases in East-Germany – From ‘Adaption’ via ‘Re-invention’ to ‘Co-innovation’
17.30-18.30	Thomas Haigh	The Data Base Management System: Where the History of Data Meets the History of Computing
18.30-19.00		Final Discussion