

University of Basel

Department of History

Management and Experiences of Migration in Modern East European History

10-11 September 2018

Alte Universität, Rheinsprung 9, Seminarraum 201

Bruno Catalano: Voyageur (Marseille)

International workshop-conference, organized by the University of Basel in cooperation with the Universities of Strasbourg, Freiburg/Br. and Center for Immigration Studies at the South Ural State University Chelyabinsk.

Supported by EUCOR-Graduate Centre (Cross border Education Grant 2018), Basel Graduate School of History (BGS), and the Chair for East European History at the Department of History.

Contact:

University of Basel
Department of History
Hirschgässlein 21
Switzerland
geschichte.unibas.ch
Tel. +41 (0)61 207 46 66

BASEL
GRADUATE
SCHOOL OF HISTORY

Monday, Sep 10

- 10.15 Welcome and Introduction
- 10.30-11.00 F. Benjamin Schenk (Basel): 'Hubs of Global Migration'. Organising flows of transcontinental migration in the late 19th and early 20th centuries
Elisabeth Janik-Freis (Basel): Traveling in Stages. Myslowitz and Hamburg as Hubs of transatlantic Migration (1880-1914)
Discussant: Dietmar Neutatz (Freiburg)
- 11.00-11.15 Coffee break
- 11.15-12.45 Olga Nikonova (Cheliabinsk): Medizinische Betreuung und Hygienische Versorgung der Pereselenzy in der Tscheljabinsker Auswandereranstalt
Yulia Khmelevskaia (Cheliabinsk): Searching for "Cities of Bread", Going Through "Bottlenecks". Agencies and Outcomes of Famine Affected Population's Displacement in Russia after the Revolution (1918-1923)
Discussant: Rhea Rieben (Basel)
- 12.45-14.00 Lunch break
- 14.00-15.30 Markian Prokopovych (Birmingham): Cities and the Materiality of Migration in Fin-de-Siècle Vienna and Budapest
Annemarie Steidl (Wien): Patterns of European Internal and Transatlantic Migration Before World War I. Hungary and Galicia in Comparison
Discussant: Fabian Baumann (Basel)
- 15.30-16.00 Coffee break
- 16.00-17.30 Laura Ritter (Freiburg): The Russian Atlantis. The Tsarist Empire as a Memory Space (lieu de mémoire) of the Russian Emigration in Germany
Sarah Hagmann (Basel): Shanghai 1938. Encounters of Central-European Jewish Refugees with Eastern European Refugees from World War I
Discussant: Sophia Polek (Basel)
- 19.00 Dinner
Restaurant Pinar, Herbergsgasse 1

Tuesday, Sep 11

- 9.00-10.30 Emilia Koustova (Strasbourg): Forced Displacements from Western Regions of the Soviet Union. Mass Violence and Individual Experiences
Ségolène Plyer (Strasbourg): Die Zulassung von deutschen Migranten nach 1945. Ein migrationsgeschichtlicher Blick auf die Neuordnung Europas nach dem Zweiten Weltkrieg
Discussant: Boris Belge (Basel)
- 10.30-10.45 Coffee break
- 10.45-12.15 Jeff Sahadeo (Carleton University): Crumbling from the Outside In. Perestroika-Era Migration to the Soviet Core Igor Narskij (Tscheljabinsk/München): "Schönheit des Leichnams". Migration und Volkskulturpflege
Discussant: Henning Lautenschläger (Basel)
- 12.15-13.00 Final Discussion
- 13.00 Sandwiches and departure of participants